

#	Question	Asker Name	Answer(s)
1	Is Gold River being included in District 4 (in the current district boundaries) an example of a district that is not compact? That doesn't seem like it complies with that criteria.	Anonymous Attendee	live answered
2	I think Don knows 1% deviation is a nice goal but not possible.	Lauren Hammond	live answered
3	What constitutes a business district?	Anonymous Attendee	live answered
4	Is voter registration considered when drawing district lines?	J Martin	live answered
5	The urbanized area south of the American River, and outside of the City of Sacramento should be kept together as one large community - from Rosemont to Gold River with Rancho Cordova.	Anonymous Attendee	live answered
6	Is it possible to keep the old Cordova Planning Area together? It was planned together, and they are linked by Highway 50 as one contiguous suburban area.	Anonymous Attendee	live answered
7	What happens if the board can't agree on a final map?	Anonymous Attendee	live answered
8	How many racial designations will the County use? For example White alone, Black alone, Hispanic alone, Asian alone, Pacific Islander?	Lauren Hammond	live answered
9	Can the public comment on those submitted maps before they are adopted?	Anonymous Attendee	live answered
10	Why do you feel it is important to keep communities together?	Anonymous Attendee	live answered
11	Can you submit comments and suggestions if you aren't a citizen?	Anonymous Attendee	live answered